Hua Your Mojesty, they really have serious injuries despite that horseplay
Yes, Zhen knows
They are all main athletes for the relay now what
.....
The Valiant Eight are injured it'll surely affect our rank in the relay
Your Majesty
Yeah more or less
Therefore
I think

why not let me .
continue to take part in the 100m final
Ah? Didn't you sprain your ankle?
It's fine
It's not a serious injury, I barely feel anything after the long rest
..
Eunuch Ming don't force yourself, it might get worse
Ahaha, I'm worst at forcing myself
I think as lons as I show up, I'll ot least get 1 point even if I come last place, and that 1 point might be pivotal in the end!

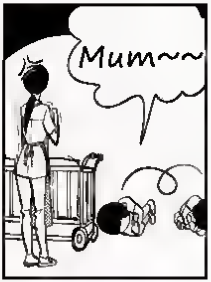
Fine, run with your best effort!
Under-stood!
But go ask your mother first
Ah!?
As the one who raised you up
She has the final say
.....
OK! No problem!
No way!
Eh!?
That's too resolute!

Why mum! It doesn't hurt anymore!
You fool, if it got worse and hurt the bone it'll be a life time problem

I'm fine, look at me!
You won't feel that unless you run hard

Mum~

Mum~~

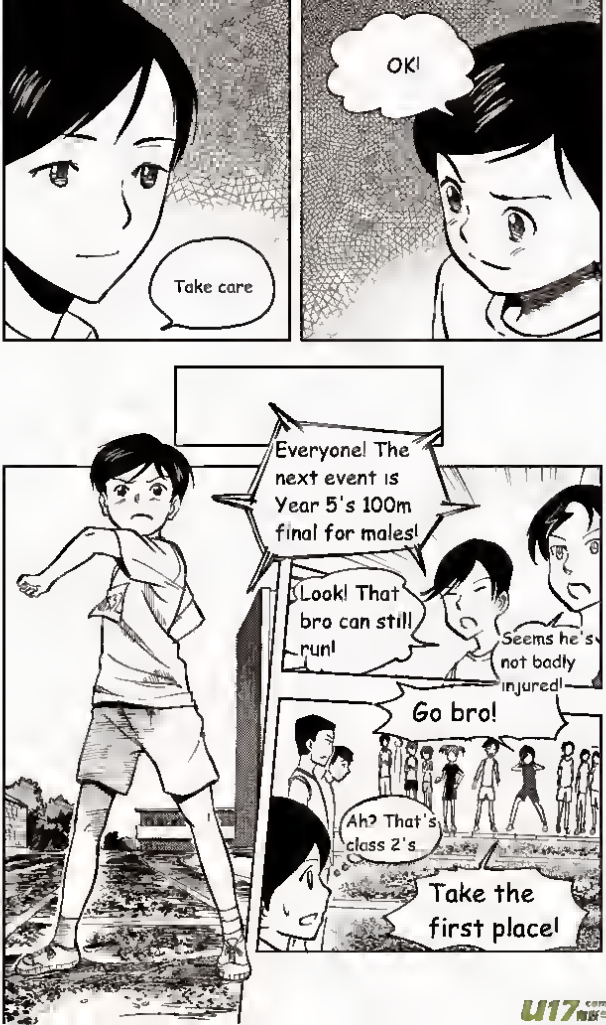


Mum~~

BAM!

You bro! Stop shaming yourself in public!
Then let me run!
No! Behave!

Mum!
What?
I remembered you said
Real man don't leave the front line for minor wounds!
Ah!
Ye . yes ..
No way! He's as handsome as his father in youth!
Mum! Then you agreed?
Pat
Son, you grow up and have your own mind
Yeah!



Take care
OK!
Everyone! The next event is Year 5's 100m final for males!
Look! That bro can still run!
Seems he's not badly injured!
Go bro!
Ah? That's class 2's
Take the first place!

Hey! You can lose to anyone but guys from class 4! Or I'll hit your bottoms with bean bag!
You call that a cheering? Guy from class 4 is right beside me
Tsk!

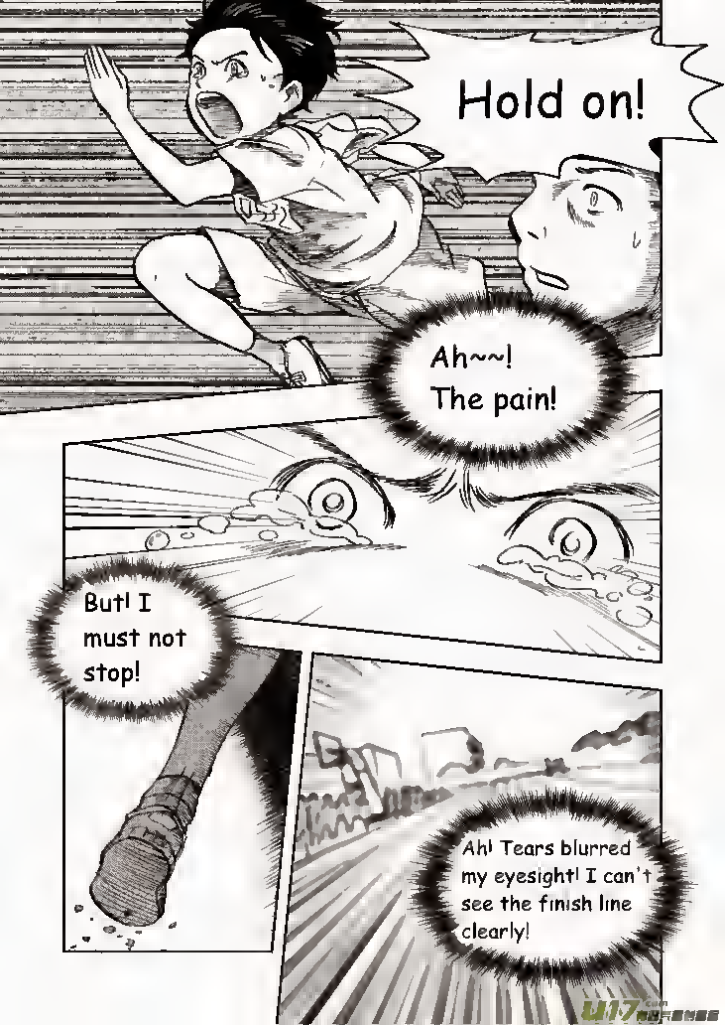
Ming-ming?
Damn you...
Bastard!



Hold on!
Ah~~!
The pain!
But! I must not stop!
Ah! Tears blurred my eyesight! I can't see the finish line clearly!

Then...
No need to see!
No need to see
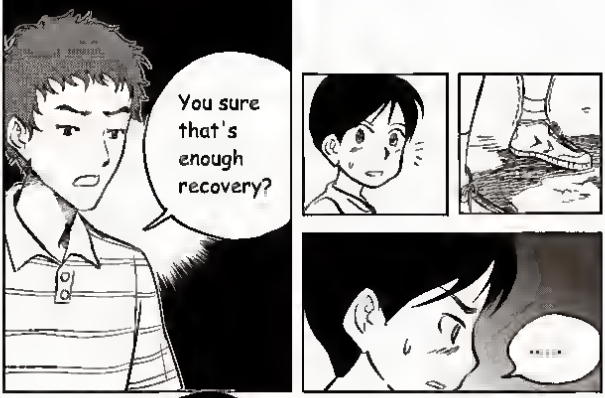
No need...

Ah... the first place is
Class 5-3, Ming!
Wow kick ass! You run faster with injury! Are you a Saint Knight!?
That's a first place you bastard!
Ah!? I, I came first place?
Ming!
You joined the race in my absence?



T/N: It's a parody here. See final page for explanation.

Mum!
Well done Ming. Your foot's fine?
Bro Jun! I'm fine
Um?
Your Majesty, that's after the games!
Oh, Zhen thought you were eager
Now that you're fine, be the main athlete for the relay!
Ah! O OK
What next...
My foot
aches so much that I'm about to lose control...

Ah... I'll go to the toilet!
You want Bro Zhong to go with you?
No need, I'll go myself

Yeah! I can't let them know... can't let them know...

Damn, it hurts like a pulse...

Must hurry up...
Now even my head aches like a pulse...

Female

Oh no, I've never come to Year 6's toilet before, I thought it is the same as Year 5's
Damn neither door curtain is hung properly plus the pain I rushed into the wrong toilet
So, sorry!

Ming I watched your 100m race, you're great
Plus Class 5-3 is surely the darkest horse today. You earn much admiration!
My name is Ming
Hehe, good name (Generic)
Ha, thank you. But even so we'll be disbanded after the reallocation exam.
.....
Exams are not a big problem as long as you have enough time to prepare, right?
Huh!?
How about this
If Class 5-3 came first in total points
I'll persuade the school leaders to postpone the exam for one month
Ah!?
To be continued

Some of you moy hove olreody noticed it is o porody of the fomous conversotion in El Shoddoi: Ascension of the Metotron's PV. The sentence 'You sure thot's enough recovery' is oltered to fit the porody.

The originol Joponese line of Lucifel goes そんな装備で大丈夫か？, literolly meoning 'Is thot equipment OK?'. In Chino it is token more literolly but in English-speoking world the sentence chonged. Zhong's line in Chinese literolly meont 'Is it Ok to run with your injured foot?', following the Chinese pottern.

In oddition, in Chinese there is o more complicoted spinoff of the 'No problem' line of Enoch (coincidentolly similor to Eunuch), but Ming didn't odopt thot so I'll not eloborote here.
